DOUG DAVIES,
INSTRUCTOR

I have always had a passion for art that began with simple doodles on a book cover and has led to the creation of the fine art watercolor paintings you see today. In between there have been many twists and turns that have taken me in all directions fulfilling many of my aspirations. I was born in Toronto, Ontario, Canada, spent three years as a youngster in British Columbia before spending most of my childhood back in Ontario. During my high school days I played trumpet, wrestled, played football and dabbled in the occasional art class. It was a love of sports that eventually took me back to BC.

In 1983 I enrolled at Simon Fraser University earning a bachelor's degree in Kinesiology and was a four year starter in football. I lived out a boyhood dream when I was selected in the second round of the 1987 Canadian Football league draft by the Montreal Alouettes. I played 12 years as an offensive lineman with three different teams: Hamilton Tiger-Cats, Calgary Stampeders and B.C. Lions. While with the Stampeders I played in two Grey Cup Championships earning a ring in 1992 against the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. During that time I met and married my beautiful wife Dana and today have two wonderful children Keeley and Wyatt.

After retiring in 1999 I enrolled at Western States Chiropractic College in Portland, OR. Four years later I graduated Magna Cum Laude with my Doctorate in Chiropractic. Today, I practice the healing art of chiropractic in downtown Portland.

Through all of this I have attempted to continue drawing and painting, and, with the encouragement of my wife, family and friends, have managed to apply brush to paper on a more consistent basis today. I have developed as an artist through self-study of many of today's great watercolorists and invaluable input from my mother-in-law Ann. Skip Lawrence relates a story in one of his videos that during a plein air painting session a bystander approached who asked if Skip was a painter then proceeded to say that 'his mother-in-law was a painter, and she was real good.' In this case Ann really is good and has been instrumental in bringing me to the level I am at today.

In 2013 I was accepted into the Watercolor Society of Oregon.
