Minimum number of students: 3

Maximum number of students: 12

Course Description: Intermediate Ballet for Teens and Adults is offered for dancers with previous training, and will expand dancers' range of motion, core strength, musicality, and grace. Taught by a former Principal Dancer, this class will be based on Classical Ballet technique. Students will hone concepts of focus, individual and ensemble movement, speed, fluidity, and endurance. Intermediate Ballet class will build on previously learned classical ballet technique and expand students' dance vocabulary and technical level. This class will be based on Russian Ballet technique using French terms, and will begin at the barre and move to center. Depending on skill of students a full class will consist of 45 minutes at the barre, then 45 minutes in the center working towards grande allegro, or big jumps.

HEATHER SOLISZ, INSTRUCTOR – NEW TO CROSSROADS

Heather Wallace Solisz grew up in Southern California and began her professional ballet career with BalletMet in Ohio. She then joined Eugene Ballet Company where she worked her way from Apprentice to Principal dancer, making her debut as Odette/Odile in Swan Lake. Over the nine years in Eugene Ballet she danced leading roles in classical ballets including The Nutcracker, Swan Lake, and Cinderella, as well as in numerous contemporary and original pieces. Heather has performed as a part of the Oregon Bach Festival as well as the Oregon Festival of American Music. As a classical ballet instructor, she has taught at numerous ballet schools including Ballet Idaho, Eugene Ballet Academy, Rachel's School of Dance in Klamath Falls, and in her hometown of Ventura, California. She is enjoying spending time with family in Baker City with her two young children while her husband is overseas.

Tai Chi

TAI CHI/QI GONG HOLIDAY STRESS DEFENSE

Instructor: Dianne Erickson

Date: Thursday, November 15

Time: 8:30-11:00am

Location: Upstairs Studio, Crossroads Carnegie Art Center

Cost: $25.00 for members or $45.00 for nonmembers

Minimum number of students: 3 Maximum: 8

Course Description: Hey y'all---Now is the time to get your holiday calm on! Fun and easy to learn. Sample a variety of gently flowing movement routines to energize your body, mind and spirit, while releasing stress and tension. Learn how to give yourself the gift of a 2 or 5-minute revitalization to help keep your good cheer in gear this season (and beyond).

In the short Tai Chi sets we will learn to combine basic movements drawn from the Yang, Sun, and Chen styles. Qi Gong exercises will also follow basic, easy to perform movements to promote better breathing and circulation, balance, coordination and overall fitness. All exercises are adaptable and suitable for anyone who needs to be in a seated position.

Age: Adults. No previous experience necessary. Note: Participants will need to sign a release confirming their readiness to participate in the physical activities of this class and, if necessary, obtain clearance from their health care professional before commencing. Students should wear clothing and footwear that are comfortable and appropriate for exercise. Shoes are required. In consideration of those with sensitivities, please refrain from wearing any strong fragrances.

DIANNE ERICKSON, INSTRUCTOR

Dianne Erickson is certified by the Tai Chi for Health Institute as an instructor for Tai Chi for Arthritis and Fall Prevention, Diabetes, and Rehabilitation. "My goal is to help students discover the benefits of practicing Tai Chi and Qi Gong, and learn how to easily make it a regular part of their daily personal care and health routines."

Minimum number of students: 5 Adults and Teens

Location: Downstairs Studio

Cost: $ 16.00 per session/members – 24.00 per session/non-members

Class Description: I will discuss what elements to put in a painting, what to leave out, how to use photos as a reference, how to position subject matter on painting paper surface for the best visual impact, how to pick the proper size paper for the subject matter depicted.

I will discuss outlets for students to sell art, including local business, art in parks, and the internet and of course local galleries. Also will discuss how to determine which pieces of art they produce have the best appeal to a large audience, therefore worth the investment to reproduce on note cards and prints.

REBECCA MANCINO LITKE, INSTRUCTOR

Becky has studied under several well known artists and instructors and is an active artist herself. She has been instructing watercolor classes at Crossroads for many years.

EXPLORING OIL PAINTING – ONGOING CLASS

Instructor: Amy VanGaasbeck

Dates: Every Tuesday – Ongoing Class – Join Anytime

Time: 5:30-7:30pm

Location: Downstairs Studio

Cost: $16.00 a session (members), $24.00 a session (non-member)

Buy 4 sessions and get the 5th Session free!

Ages: 15 to adult

Supply list: At Crossroads

Course Description: This class will teach beginning students how to paint with oils, and help more advanced students refine their skills. We will learn basic techniques, composition, and color theory. Students will learn to create original paintings, using objects from life and/or photographic reference. Our focus will be centered more on realism, rather than abstract.

Each student will work at their own pace and will receive individual instruction as needed.

Some objects will be available for use and inspiration in painting a still life; however, students are encouraged to bring their own objects and reference photos.

AMY VANGAASBECK, INSTRUCTOR

Amy has been a local success story by taking a hobby and making it into a successful art business. Crossroads is pleased to offer a weekly class in Oil painting where beginners can learn and experiment and intermediate and professional can get additional support and studio time!
