

CROSSROADS CARNEGIE ART CENTER
ART FOR EVERYONE

2012 Annual Membership Drive

Crossroads Carnegie Art Center, a vital part of our rural community, is seeking your support for 2012 programs and building operations. Did you know that Crossroads is the oldest continuously operating art center east of the Cascades? Your membership allows Crossroads to offer the following:

- Art Education programs for children and adults including the Hand to Heart Scholarship Fund, making classes available for all
- Opportunities to be engaged, inspired and transformed by diverse forms of art
- Community centered cultural events including literary arts and visual arts
- Sustainability of our historic Carnegie Library building

Your Basic Benefit Package includes:

- 10% one-time discount coupon towards any Crossroads class or gallery purchase
- Member rates for Crossroads classes
- For Artists: Promotion on the Crossroads website and reduced booth fees at Miners Jubilee "Art in the Park"
- Subscription to our quarterly newsletter
- Invitation and voting rights at the Annual Meeting
- Use of the Hutchinson Art Library at Crossroads
- Privilege of using the LaVonne Kasper Pottery Studio and the classroom studio (contact Crossroads for available times and studio fees)

The $100 level and above memberships receive the basic benefit package and other benefits, such as discounts on building rental and additional gallery savings. For details go to the Crossroads website www.crossroads-arts.org
